Free Bible Study Videos & Resources!

We are excited to announce our partnership with RightNow Media to provide video resources to assist our church family in the growth of faith. This is a free resource to you with St. Paul Lutheran covering the subscription cost. Think of this resource as a Christian Netflix. More than 20,000 videos are at your fingertips for use in personal devotions or group study. There are series on books of the Bible; topics like marriage, parenting, personal finances, mental health, and more; and a library just for kids with over 2,000 safe, entertaining videos. All these can be accessed from your computer, smart phone, or an app installed on your TV. To gain access, simply visit the link below and create your free account on the Right Now Media website. Contact Jim at the church office if you would like to have the registration link emailed directly to you. We pray that RightNow Media will be a blessing to you and your family!
